Bronson Healthcare Group is a not-for-profit, community-governed health system serving nine counties in southwest and south central Michigan. With 8,600 employees, more than 1,300 medical staff members, and 846 licensed beds, Bronson is the largest employer and leading healthcare system in southwest Michigan. It offers a full range of services from primary care to critical care across more than 70 locations. Key member organizations include: Bronson Methodist Hospital, Bronson Battle Creek, Bronson LakeView Hospital, Bronson South Haven Hospital, Bronson Medical Group, Bronson at Home, Bronson Commons, Bronson Lifestyle Improvement & Research Center and the Bronson Health Foundation.

Bronson Methodist Hospital in Kalamazoo is a 434-bed, all-private room regional referral center providing care in virtually every specialty. It has advanced capabilities in critical care as the region's only Level I Trauma Center; in neurological care as a Joint Commission-certified Comprehensive Stroke Center; in cardiac care as the region's first accredited Chest Pain Center; in obstetrics as the leading BirthPlace and only high-risk pregnancy center in southwest Michigan, and in pediatrics as the only children's hospital in the region. The hospital serves the largest percentage of Medicaid patients in the area and provides a substantial benefit to the community through outreach and charitable care.

Bronson Methodist Hospital is recognized as a national leader in healthcare quality. Among its achievements, is the 2005 Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award, the nation's highest presidential honor for quality and organizational performance excellence. In 2009, the hospital received the AHA McKesson Quest for Quality Prize awarded annually to only one U.S. hospital and joined the top five percent of hospitals in the nation designated a Magnet Hospital for Nursing Excellence.

Bronson Battle Creek Hospital is a 228-bed, all-private room community hospital providing a full range of outpatient and inpatient acute care including robotic surgery, world-class diagnostics, and rehabilitation services. Specialty services include inpatient behavioral health, the county's largest accredited sleep center, and a wound-healing center with hyperbaric oxygen therapy. Bronson Battle Creek is recognized by the Leapfrog Group as one of the country's safest hospitals and is a national leader in the development of electronic health records. The Commission on Cancer of the American College of Surgeons recognizes it as a Community Hospital Comprehensive Cancer program, the only hospital in Michigan to be a recipient of that distinction three years in a row.

Bronson LakeView Hospital in Paw Paw is a 35-bed, all-private room critical access hospital serving Van Buren and Kalamazoo counties. It offers a wide range of acute care services including surgery, geriatric psychology and emergency care. Outpatient services are provided at the hospital as well as at Bronson LakeView Outpatient Center in Paw Paw and at rural health clinics in Decatur and Mattawan. Services include behavioral health, home health, rehabilitation, pharmacy, diagnostics and a host of specialty clinics.

Bronson South Haven Hospital is a 49-bed community hospital serving Allegan and Van Buren counties. It provides a continuum of care through its main campus in South Haven and clinics in South Haven and Bangor. Its facilities offer specialized care in alternative pain management, women's health, orthopedics and general surgery, wound care, rehabilitation, occupational medicine, family care, oncology, emergency and urgent care, rheumatology and integrative medicine. The Bronson Wellness Center in South Haven offers rehabilitation services, group exercise classes, personal trainers, massage therapy, and wellness programs.

Bronson Commons located in Mattawan in Van Buren County, is a 100-bed skilled nursing center offering extensive rehabilitation therapies. It is part of the full continuum of care that Bronson provides to patients and families in southwest and south central Michigan.
