

Federal Financial Aid Recipient Rights and Responsibilities

Students have the right to know:

- The financial aid programs available and the procedures for applying for financial aid.
- The criteria for determining financial aid eligibility and calculating financial need.
- The criteria for maintaining financial aid eligibility.
- The terms and conditions of awards made by the Office of Financial Aid.
- The Cost of Attendance, Refund/Repayment Policy, and Withdrawal Procedure.
- The conditions of any loan they accept.

Students have the responsibility to:

- Complete all forms accurately and by the published deadline.
- Submit information requested by the Office of Financial Aid in a timely manner.
- Report to the Office of Financial Aid any sources of external or 3rd party assistance (service commitment or other scholarships, awards, etc.)
- Notify the Office of Financial Aid of a change in enrollment.
- Maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress.
- Comply with promissory notes and all other agreements that they sign.
- Repay all loans according to their repayment schedule.
- Not be in default on any prior federal grant or loan or owe a refund to the U.S.

Contact the Office of Financial Aid for more information or assistance:

Deirdre Moore, Director of Financial Aid

financialaid@med.wmich.edu or 269.337.6107